

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

Oct. 24—Junior Guild Dance at Armory.

Oct. 24.—Card party and dance in K. of C. hall.

Oct. 27—Ministerial Association.

Oct. 28.—School board at high school.

Oct. 28.—Tillikum club dance.

Oct. 29—Bridge Luncheon club.

Oct. 30.—P. E. O. Sisterhood meeting.

Oct. 31—Country Club dance.

Jitney dance at armory Saturday night.

Tyler's Drug store for quick service. Phone 35.

Nottingham curtains, a few pair over, values to $2.75, $2.55 pair. Hamilton's.

Dr. Chalmer Lee George, dentist, 313-14 Masonic bldg. Phone 181.

O. J. Wilson of Albany is in town today visiting with friends.

Dr. S. C. Stone will be found at Tyler's Drug Store, 157 South Commercial street.

Read page 151 last week's Saturday Evening Post.

Norma N. Terwilliger, licensed lady embalmer with Terwilliger Funeral Home, 770 Chemeketa St. Phone 724.

Miss Inez Wiedmer and Miss Florence Wiedmer spent Wednesday in Portland.

Mrs. L. G. Curtis is giving a sale of beautiful hats at special price of $7.75. 125 N. High St.

Leather belting, F. E. Shafer, harness and saddlery, 170 S. Commercial.

Dance near Auburn hall Sat. night. Good four piece orchestra. Take a Jitney. 25c.

Mrs. Paul Hauser and small son and daughter, have returned from Eugene where they have been the guests of Mrs. Lloyd Hauser.

That band player Ricketts will drive away our blues Friday night at Guild dance. Armory.

Orchestra of 9 pieces, the big feature, Guild dance Friday night. Armory.

Musical favorites including Mills, Rhoten, Steelhammer, Pabst and Talmadge at Guild dance Friday night. Armory.

Guild dance, Friday night for the benefit of St. Pauls church at Armory.

This week's drapery special, Odd pairs and drop patterns in fancy lace curtains, values to $7.50 pair, $4.10 pair. Hamilton's.

Mrs. Barton has gone to San Francisco for the Salem Electric Co., to buy the most artistic reading lamps and lighting fixtures, also the latest thing in percolators, toasters, etc.

E. L. Buchanan is agent in Marion and Polk counties for the National Life Insurance Co., U. S. A. See him for a full return premium policy on your life, it's the only kind. Phone 13521 for interview.

After more than two years of service in the navy, Jesse George, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. George, proprietors of the White House restaurant, returned home yesterday after receiving his discharge.

H. J. Leaf, mill superintendent of the Silver Falls Timber company, was in Salem Tuesday. Mrs. Leaf accompanied him. Mr. and Mrs. Leaf are well known residents of Silverton and have a number of friends in Salem.

Mrs. G. A. Webb of Tacoma, accompanied by her son, Lieutenant Webb of Camp Lewis, are in Salem for a few days, visiting with Mrs. M. E. Brewer and Miss Blanche Stevenson. Miss Stevenson is a niece of the lieutenant.

Miss Blanche Stevenson left Thursday morning for Portland where she will spend a brief visit with friends. Miss Stevenson is a registered pharmacist and is at present employed in the Opera house pharmacy.

"Get your voice into shape" rally was held during the chapel hour Wednesday at Willametta, when Yell Leader Plegel and his assistant, Clara Gillette and Song Leader Miss Dunnette took the floor for fifteen minutes of yells and songs. This short rally was held as a preliminary to the big rally which is to come Friday at chapel hour to give the Bearcats their official sendoff for the Saturday game with Reed college on the Portland field.

Read page 151 last week's Saturday Evening Post.

L. P. Campbell of Newberg is a guest at the Argo hotel.

Forming a party that is domiciled at the Bligh hotel are Fred Woodhouse, Matt Young and Ed Holman of Vancouver, Wash.

Among the Portlanders who are visiting in Salem today are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mentor. They are stopping at the Bligh.

From Corvallis come Mr. and Mrs. Batty Cooper who are staying at the Bligh.

Guy Porter spent Wednesday in Portland, attending to business and visiting with friends.

Joe Richardson, assistant state treasurer, went to Portland this morning on official business.

Mrs. Heskiah Brusk of Independence, visited with friends in Salem yesterday.

J. L. Bunn holds from Albany, and is in town on a brief business visit. While here he is at the Bligh.

E. Wilkenson of Tacoma is among the out of town visitors who are staying at the Bligh hotel.

Twin Falls, Idaho, is the home of Eugene Huddleson, one of the guests at the Bligh.

Wanted, John of $7000 on A No. 1 city property, on 1066 1/2 Ave. See Fleming Realty Co., 341 State St.

Registering from Alaska, but giving no definite address, George Alis and F. J. Peatlovich are stopping at the Bligh.

J. B. Coleman of Jacksonville, county assessor of Jackson county, and a former Salemite, spent Thursday visiting friends in the city.

J. C. Aitken of Medford, state superintendent of screens for the fish and game commission, spent Thursday in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hood are Portlanders who are spending the day in Salem. They are guests at the Bligh.

Public Service Commissioner H. H. Corey is back from eastern Oregon where he spent the first of the week conducting hearings at Condon, The Dalles and Dufur.

W. McLaren has opened offices in the Breyman block on Commercial street, where he will handle real estate, loans and investments. Mr. McLaren is formerly of Ontario, Canada, but has resided in the states for a number of years.

Reverend J. E. Buck, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church, was involved in a slight auto accident yesterday afternoon, when to avoid running into a woman who unexpectedly crossed the street in front of him he was forced to make a sharp turn. The slippery pavement caused the car to swerve and the rear wheel was smashed on the curbing.

Under the auspices of the Marion County Holiness association, Reverend Joseph Smith, well known evangelist, will conduct a series of services at the South Salem Friends church, from October 26 to November 14.

The loss of a city warrant, made out June 16, 1919, to Oliver Matthews was reported Thursday morning by City Recorder Race. The warrant was for $13.96, and was No. 26959. Payment on the check has been cancelled, and it is pointed out by Recorder Race that any attempt to cash the warrant will be useless.

A building permit was issued Thursday, for the alteration and repair of a one story brick building, to Joseph Baumgartner, 147 N. Commercial street. The cost of this work will be approximately $5000. Mr. Baumgartner told the city recorder.

A bulletin, setting forth interesting facts and figures of the growth of the Capital Post, American Legion, and announcing coming meetings of the organization, was being prepared Thursday, and will probably be mailed out to members tomorrow. Leaders report an increase of membership received during the past week.

A Bible conference is scheduled to take place at the First Baptist church October 29 to October 31, inclusive. It will be conducted by Dr. James M. Gray, dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, and by Dr. W. P. White, for eighteen years pastor of the Baptist church in Albany. Both men are said to be able lecturers and well acquainted with the subjects they will discuss.

In order to attend the fire prevention pictures being shown at the First Congregational church last evening, the Business Men's league adjourned shortly after convening, without transacting any of its scheduled business. The meeting will be held Wednesday, October 28, in order to make definite plans for the observance of Armistice day, and to arrange for the decoration of the streets and the closing of the business houses on that day.

L. F. Meeske, 320 South Commercial street, was fined $10 Thursday by Police Judge Race for being intoxicated. Meeske was arrested at the S. P. depot late last night by Officer Victor, who found him asleep at a corner of the building. Meeske told Judge Race that he drank a potion, consisting of beef, iron wine and cider, to "drown his troubles" caused when he was discharged from the Chas. K. Spaulding company's mill yesterday morning for "joining the union." Meeske paid the $10 and was released.

Mr. and Mrs. Marrell of Portland are visiting with friends in Salem today.

Seattle is represented on the register of a local hotelery today by Edward H. Eckenche.

Accompanied by his wife, W. D. Gustison of Spokane is a guest at the Bligh hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dunsford have returned from Newport where they have been for the past two weeks on their annual vacation. Mr. Dunsford is superintendent of buildings and grounds at the state capitol.

The supreme court will be in Pendleton next week and most of the members plan to leave Salem Saturday to be in readiness for the opening of the court Monday.

Funeral services for the late Comrade Meeker M. Culver, who died yesterday, will be held from the Terwilliger home, Friday at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the G. A. R. circle in the City View cemetery. Mr. Culver was a member of the 6th Michigan heavy artillery during the War of the Rebellion.

Owing to the fact that Friday evening is the date of the Junior Guild dance at the armory, the dance which was to follow the card party at the Knights of Columbus hall tomorrow evening has been postponed until later. The card party itself, however, will be conducted according to schedule.

A. Ross Dole, 35, foreman at the Chas. G. Spaulding Box factory, died at his home, 337 S. 15th street at noon today, a victim of pneumonia. Mr. Dole has been sick only since Sunday. The body is in charge of Rigdon's undertaking company. Mr. Dole is survived by his mother and a sister, Mrs. Fred McIntire. He was a member of the Elks. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The collision of a streetcar with an auto stopped running as it was on Liberty at 3 p. m. was reported; but no one is said to have been hurt. According to witnesses the engine in the auto-stopped running as it was on the track, and the car did not stop in time to avert the compact. Neither the railway company or police received a report of the collision, they said.

The efforts of the committee in charge of the Guild dance at the armory tomorrow night, are about to be realized if present indications may be taken as omens. All promises for a gay time will be amply fulfilled. The decorations, while not elaborate, will be in accordance with the occasion and will lead a note of warmth and cheer to the atmosphere. The orchestra, in which the committee is placing a great amount of confidence, is composed of the following leading musicians: Lillian McElroy Hunt at the piano; Rhoten and Mills, violins; Pabst, cornet; Steelhammer, trombone; Claret, banjo; Riley, cello; Poppe, clarinet; Talmadge, drums.

"If you knew that you would be one of the 15 men in Salem whose life would end before another year passes, you would take more life insurance. Are YOU sure that you will not be one of the 15? J. F. Hutchason, district manager for the Mutual Life of N. Y. with offices at 371 State St., phone 99, is in a contest that requires him to write TEN $10,000 policies before the first of the year, in order to qualify. "If you are thinking of considering taking more life insurance won't you consult a man whose only business for over 8 years has been life insurance, and one who lives in Salem and one who is interested in seeing Salem become the largest and best city in the state outside of Portland? "If you are looking for information or know of anyone who is considering insurance, I will be pleased to know about them. I can write you a policy that will give you the maximum protection for the minimum cost and in the oldest company in America. I believe it to be the best — may I prove it to you? (Adv)

Read page 151 last week's Saturday Evening Post.

L. P. Campbell of Newberg is a guest at the Argo hotel.

Forming a party that is domiciled at the Bligh hotel are Fred Woodhouse, Matt Young and Ed Holman of Vancouver, Wash.

Among the Portlanders who are visiting in Salem today are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mentor. They are stopping at the Bligh.

From Corvallis come Mr. and Mrs. Batty Cooper who are staying at the Bligh.

Guy Porter spent Wednesday in Portland, attending to business and visiting with friends.

Joe Richardson, assistant state treasurer, went to Portland this morning on official business.

Mrs. Heskiah Brusk of Independence, visited with friends in Salem yesterday.

J. L. Bunn holds from Albany, and is in town on a brief business visit. While here he is at the Bligh.

E. Wilkenson of Tacoma is among the out of town visitors who are staying at the Bligh hotel.

Twin Falls, Idaho, is the home of Eugene Huddleson, one of the guests at the Bligh.

Wanted, John of $7000 on A No. 1 city property, on 1066 1/2 Ave. See Fleming Realty Co., 341 State St.

Registering from Alaska, but giving no definite address, George Alis and F. J. Peatlovich are stopping at the Bligh.

J. B. Coleman of Jacksonville, county assessor of Jackson county, and a former Salemite, spent Thursday visiting friends in the city.

J. C. Aitken of Medford, state superintendent of screens for the fish and game commission, spent Thursday in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hood are Portlanders who are spending the day in Salem. They are guests at the Bligh.

Public Service Commissioner H. H. Corey is back from eastern Oregon where he spent the first of the week conducting hearings at Condon, The Dalles and Dufur.

W. McLaren has opened offices in the Breyman block on Commercial street, where he will handle real estate, loans and investments. Mr. McLaren is formerly of Ontario, Canada, but has resided in the states for a number of years.

Reverend J. E. Buck, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church, was involved in a slight auto accident yesterday afternoon, when to avoid running into a woman who unexpectedly crossed the street in front of him he was forced to make a sharp turn. The slippery pavement caused the car to swerve and the rear wheel was smashed on the curbing.

Under the auspices of the Marion County Holiness association, Reverend Joseph Smith, well known evangelist, will conduct a series of services at the South Salem Friends church, from October 26 to November 14.

The loss of a city warrant, made out June 16, 1919, to Oliver Matthews was reported Thursday morning by City Recorder Race. The warrant was for $13.96, and was No. 26959. Payment on the check has been cancelled, and it is pointed out by Recorder Race that any attempt to cash the warrant will be useless.

A building permit was issued Thursday, for the alteration and repair of a one story brick building, to Joseph Baumgartner, 147 N. Commercial street. The cost of this work will be approximately $5000. Mr. Baumgartner told the city recorder.

A bulletin, setting forth interesting facts and figures of the growth of the Capital Post, American Legion, and announcing coming meetings of the organization, was being prepared Thursday, and will probably be mailed out to members tomorrow. Leaders report an increase of membership received during the past week.

A Bible conference is scheduled to take place at the First Baptist church October 29 to October 31, inclusive. It will be conducted by Dr. James M. Gray, dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, and by Dr. W. P. White, for eighteen years pastor of the Baptist church in Albany. Both men are said to be able lecturers and well acquainted with the subjects they will discuss.

In order to attend the fire prevention pictures being shown at the First Congregational church last evening, the Business Men's league adjourned shortly after convening, without transacting any of its scheduled business. The meeting will be held Wednesday, October 28, in order to make definite plans for the observance of Armistice day, and to arrange for the decoration of the streets and the closing of the business houses on that day.

L. F. Meeske, 320 South Commercial street, was fined $10 Thursday by Police Judge Race for being intoxicated. Meeske was arrested at the S. P. depot late last night by Officer Victor, who found him asleep at a corner of the building. Meeske told Judge Race that he drank a potion, consisting of beef, iron wine and cider, to "drown his troubles" caused when he was discharged from the Chas. K. Spaulding company's mill yesterday morning for "joining the union." Meeske paid the $10 and was released.

Mr. and Mrs. Marrell of Portland are visiting with friends in Salem today.

Seattle is represented on the register of a local hotelery today by Edward H. Eckenche.

Accompanied by his wife, W. D. Gustison of Spokane is a guest at the Bligh hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dunsford have returned from Newport where they have been for the past two weeks on their annual vacation. Mr. Dunsford is superintendent of buildings and grounds at the state capitol.

The supreme court will be in Pendleton next week and most of the members plan to leave Salem Saturday to be in readiness for the opening of the court Monday.

Funeral services for the late Comrade Meeker M. Culver, who died yesterday, will be held from the Terwilliger home, Friday at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the G. A. R. circle in the City View cemetery. Mr. Culver was a member of the 6th Michigan heavy artillery during the War of the Rebellion.

Owing to the fact that Friday evening is the date of the Junior Guild dance at the armory, the dance which was to follow the card party at the Knights of Columbus hall tomorrow evening has been postponed until later. The card party itself, however, will be conducted according to schedule.

A. Ross Dole, 35, foreman at the Chas. G. Spaulding Box factory, died at his home, 337 S. 15th street at noon today, a victim of pneumonia. Mr. Dole has been sick only since Sunday. The body is in charge of Rigdon's undertaking company. Mr. Dole is survived by his mother and a sister, Mrs. Fred McIntire. He was a member of the Elks. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The collision of a streetcar with an auto stopped running as it was on Liberty at 3 p. m. was reported; but no one is said to have been hurt. According to witnesses the engine in the auto-stopped running as it was on the track, and the car did not stop in time to avert the compact. Neither the railway company or police received a report of the collision, they said.

The efforts of the committee in charge of the Guild dance at the armory tomorrow night, are about to be realized if present indications may be taken as omens. All promises for a gay time will be amply fulfilled. The decorations, while not elaborate, will be in accordance with the occasion and will lead a note of warmth and cheer to the atmosphere. The orchestra, in which the committee is placing a great amount of confidence, is composed of the following leading musicians: Lillian McElroy Hunt at the piano; Rhoten and Mills, violins; Pabst, cornet; Steelhammer, trombone; Claret, banjo; Riley, cello; Poppe, clarinet; Talmadge, drums.

"If you knew that you would be one of the 15 men in Salem whose life would end before another year passes, you would take more life insurance. Are YOU sure that you will not be one of the 15? J. F. Hutchason, district manager for the Mutual Life of N. Y. with offices at 371 State St., phone 99, is in a contest that requires him to write TEN $10,000 policies before the first of the year, in order to qualify. "If you are thinking of considering taking more life insurance won't you consult a man whose only business for over 8 years has been life insurance, and one who lives in Salem and one who is interested in seeing Salem become the largest and best city in the state outside of Portland? "If you are looking for information or know of anyone who is considering insurance, I will be pleased to know about them. I can write you a policy that will give you the maximum protection for the minimum cost and in the oldest company in America. I believe it to be the best — may I prove it to you? (Adv)

Read page 151 last week's Saturday Evening Post.

L. P. Campbell of Newberg is a guest at the Argo hotel.

Forming a party that is domiciled at the Bligh hotel are Fred Woodhouse, Matt Young and Ed Holman of Vancouver, Wash.

Among the Portlanders who are visiting in Salem today are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mentor. They are stopping at the Bligh.

From Corvallis come Mr. and Mrs. Batty Cooper who are staying at the Bligh.

Guy Porter spent Wednesday in Portland, attending to business and visiting with friends.

Joe Richardson, assistant state treasurer, went to Portland this morning on official business.

Mrs. Heskiah Brusk of Independence, visited with friends in Salem yesterday.

J. L. Bunn holds from Albany, and is in town on a brief business visit. While here he is at the Bligh.

E. Wilkenson of Tacoma is among the out of town visitors who are staying at the Bligh hotel.

Twin Falls, Idaho, is the home of Eugene Huddleson, one of the guests at the Bligh.

Wanted, John of $7000 on A No. 1 city property, on 1066 1/2 Ave. See Fleming Realty Co., 341 State St.

Registering from Alaska, but giving no definite address, George Alis and F. J. Peatlovich are stopping at the Bligh.

J. B. Coleman of Jacksonville, county assessor of Jackson county, and a former Salemite, spent Thursday visiting friends in the city.

J. C. Aitken of Medford, state superintendent of screens for the fish and game commission, spent Thursday in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hood are Portlanders who are spending the day in Salem. They are guests at the Bligh.

Public Service Commissioner H. H. Corey is back from eastern Oregon where he spent the first of the week conducting hearings at Condon, The Dalles and Dufur.

W. McLaren has opened offices in the Breyman block on Commercial street, where he will handle real estate, loans and investments. Mr. McLaren is formerly of Ontario, Canada, but has resided in the states for a number of years.

Reverend J. E. Buck, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church, was involved in a slight auto accident yesterday afternoon, when to avoid running into a woman who unexpectedly crossed the street in front of him he was forced to make a sharp turn. The slippery pavement caused the car to swerve and the rear wheel was smashed on the curbing.

Under the auspices of the Marion County Holiness association, Reverend Joseph Smith, well known evangelist, will conduct a series of services at the South Salem Friends church, from October 26 to November 14.

The loss of a city warrant, made out June 16, 1919, to Oliver Matthews was reported Thursday morning by City Recorder Race. The warrant was for $13.96, and was No. 26959. Payment on the check has been cancelled, and it is pointed out by Recorder Race that any attempt to cash the warrant will be useless.

A building permit was issued Thursday, for the alteration and repair of a one story brick building, to Joseph Baumgartner, 147 N. Commercial street. The cost of this work will be approximately $5000. Mr. Baumgartner told the city recorder.

A bulletin, setting forth interesting facts and figures of the growth of the Capital Post, American Legion, and announcing coming meetings of the organization, was being prepared Thursday, and will probably be mailed out to members tomorrow. Leaders report an increase of membership received during the past week.

A Bible conference is scheduled to take place at the First Baptist church October 29 to October 31, inclusive. It will be conducted by Dr. James M. Gray, dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, and by Dr. W. P. White, for eighteen years pastor of the Baptist church in Albany. Both men are said to be able lecturers and well acquainted with the subjects they will discuss.

In order to attend the fire prevention pictures being shown at the First Congregational church last evening, the Business Men's league adjourned shortly after convening, without transacting any of its scheduled business. The meeting will be held Wednesday, October 28, in order to make definite plans for the observance of Armistice day, and to arrange for the decoration of the streets and the closing of the business houses on that day.

L. F. Meeske, 320 South Commercial street, was fined $10 Thursday by Police Judge Race for being intoxicated. Meeske was arrested at the S. P. depot late last night by Officer Victor, who found him asleep at a corner of the building. Meeske told Judge Race that he drank a potion, consisting of beef, iron wine and cider, to "drown his troubles" caused when he was discharged from the Chas. K. Spaulding company's mill yesterday morning for "joining the union." Meeske paid the $10 and was released.

Mr. and Mrs. Marrell of Portland are visiting with friends in Salem today.

Seattle is represented on the register of a local hotelery today by Edward H. Eckenche.

Accompanied by his wife, W. D. Gustison of Spokane is a guest at the Bligh hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dunsford have returned from Newport where they have been for the past two weeks on their annual vacation. Mr. Dunsford is superintendent of buildings and grounds at the state capitol.

The supreme court will be in Pendleton next week and most of the members plan to leave Salem Saturday to be in readiness for the opening of the court Monday.

Funeral services for the late Comrade Meeker M. Culver, who died yesterday, will be held from the Terwilliger home, Friday at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the G. A. R. circle in the City View cemetery. Mr. Culver was a member of the 6th Michigan heavy artillery during the War of the Rebellion.

Owing to the fact that Friday evening is the date of the Junior Guild dance at the armory, the dance which was to follow the card party at the Knights of Columbus hall tomorrow evening has been postponed until later. The card party itself, however, will be conducted according to schedule.

A. Ross Dole, 35, foreman at the Chas. G. Spaulding Box factory, died at his home, 337 S. 15th street at noon today, a victim of pneumonia. Mr. Dole has been sick only since Sunday. The body is in charge of Rigdon's undertaking company. Mr. Dole is survived by his mother and a sister, Mrs. Fred McIntire. He was a member of the Elks. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The collision of a streetcar with an auto stopped running as it was on Liberty at 3 p. m. was reported; but no one is said to have been hurt. According to witnesses the engine in the auto-stopped running as it was on the track, and the car did not stop in time to avert the compact. Neither the railway company or police received a report of the collision, they said.

The efforts of the committee in charge of the Guild dance at the armory tomorrow night, are about to be realized if present indications may be taken as omens. All promises for a gay time will be amply fulfilled. The decorations, while not elaborate, will be in accordance with the occasion and will lead a note of warmth and cheer to the atmosphere. The orchestra, in which the committee is placing a great amount of confidence, is composed of the following leading musicians: Lillian McElroy Hunt at the piano; Rhoten and Mills, violins; Pabst, cornet; Steelhammer, trombone; Claret, banjo; Riley, cello; Poppe, clarinet; Talmadge, drums.

"If you knew that you would be one of the 15 men in Salem whose life would end before another year passes, you would take more life insurance. Are YOU sure that you will not be one of the 15? J. F. Hutchason, district manager for the Mutual Life of N. Y. with offices at 371 State St., phone 99, is in a contest that requires him to write TEN $10,000 policies before the first of the year, in order to qualify. "If you are thinking of considering taking more life insurance won't you consult a man whose only business for over 8 years has been life insurance, and one who lives in Salem and one who is interested in seeing Salem become the largest and best city in the state outside of Portland? "If you are looking for information or know of anyone who is considering insurance, I will be pleased to know about them. I can write you a policy that will give you the maximum protection for the minimum cost and in the oldest company in America. I believe it to be the best — may I prove it to you? (Adv)

Read page 151 last week's Saturday Evening Post.

L. P. Campbell of Newberg is a guest at the Argo hotel.

Forming a party that is domiciled at the Bligh hotel are Fred Woodhouse, Matt Young and Ed Holman of Vancouver, Wash.

Among the Portlanders who are visiting in Salem today are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mentor. They are stopping at the Bligh.

From Corvallis come Mr. and Mrs. Batty Cooper who are staying at the Bligh.

Guy Porter spent Wednesday in Portland, attending to business and visiting with friends.

Joe Richardson, assistant state treasurer, went to Portland this morning on official business.

Mrs. Heskiah Brusk of Independence, visited with friends in Salem yesterday.

J. L. Bunn holds from Albany, and is in town on a brief business visit. While here he is at the Bligh.

E. Wilkenson of Tacoma is among the out of town visitors who are staying at the Bligh hotel.

Twin Falls, Idaho, is the home of Eugene Huddleson, one of the guests at the Bligh.

Wanted, John of $7000 on A No. 1 city property, on 1066 1/2 Ave. See Fleming Realty Co., 341 State St.

Registering from Alaska, but giving no definite address, George Alis and F. J. Peatlovich are stopping at the Bligh.

J. B. Coleman of Jacksonville, county assessor of Jackson county, and a former Salemite, spent Thursday visiting friends in the city.

J. C. Aitken of Medford, state superintendent of screens for the fish and game commission, spent Thursday in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hood are Portlanders who are spending the day in Salem. They are guests at the Bligh.

Public Service Commissioner H. H. Corey is back from eastern Oregon where he spent the first of the week conducting hearings at Condon, The Dalles and Dufur.

W. McLaren has opened offices in the Breyman block on Commercial street, where he will handle real estate, loans and investments. Mr. McLaren is formerly of Ontario, Canada, but has resided in the states for a number of years.

Reverend J. E. Buck, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church, was involved in a slight auto accident yesterday afternoon, when to avoid running into a woman who unexpectedly crossed the street in front of him he was forced to make a sharp turn. The slippery pavement caused the car to swerve and the rear wheel was smashed on the curbing.

Under the auspices of the Marion County Holiness association, Reverend Joseph Smith, well known evangelist, will conduct a series of services at the South Salem Friends church, from October 26 to November 14.

The loss of a city warrant, made out June 16, 1919, to Oliver Matthews was reported Thursday morning by City Recorder Race. The warrant was for $13.96, and was No. 26959. Payment on the check has been cancelled, and it is pointed out by Recorder Race that any attempt to cash the warrant will be useless.

A building permit was issued Thursday, for the alteration and repair of a one story brick building, to Joseph Baumgartner, 147 N. Commercial street. The cost of this work will be approximately $5000. Mr. Baumgartner told the city recorder.

A bulletin, setting forth interesting facts and figures of the growth of the Capital Post, American Legion, and announcing coming meetings of the organization, was being prepared Thursday, and will probably be mailed out to members tomorrow. Leaders report an increase of membership received during the past week.

A Bible conference is scheduled to take place at the First Baptist church October 29 to October 31, inclusive. It will be conducted by Dr. James M. Gray, dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, and by Dr. W. P. White, for eighteen years pastor of the Baptist church in Albany. Both men are said to be able lecturers and well acquainted with the subjects they will discuss.

In order to attend the fire prevention pictures being shown at the First Congregational church last evening, the Business Men's league adjourned shortly after convening, without transacting any of its scheduled business. The meeting will be held Wednesday, October 28, in order to make definite plans for the observance of Armistice day, and to arrange for the decoration of the streets and the closing of the business houses on that day.

L. F. Meeske, 320 South Commercial street, was fined $10 Thursday by Police Judge Race for being intoxicated. Meeske was arrested at the S. P. depot late last night by Officer Victor, who found him asleep at a corner of the building. Meeske told Judge Race that he drank a potion, consisting of beef, iron wine and cider, to "drown his troubles" caused when he was discharged from the Chas. K. Spaulding company's mill yesterday morning for "joining the union." Meeske paid the $10 and was released.

Mr. and Mrs. Marrell of Portland are visiting with friends in Salem today.

Seattle is represented on the register of a local hotelery today by Edward H. Eckenche.

Accompanied by his wife, W. D. Gustison of Spokane is a guest at the Bligh hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dunsford have returned from Newport where they have been for the past two weeks on their annual vacation. Mr. Dunsford is superintendent of buildings and grounds at the state capitol.

The supreme court will be in Pendleton next week and most of the members plan to leave Salem Saturday to be in readiness for the opening of the court Monday.

Funeral services for the late Comrade Meeker M. Culver, who died yesterday, will be held from the Terwilliger home, Friday at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the G. A. R. circle in the City View cemetery. Mr. Culver was a member of the 6th Michigan heavy artillery during the War of the Rebellion.

Owing to the fact that Friday evening is the date of the Junior Guild dance at the armory, the dance which was to follow the card party at the Knights of Columbus hall tomorrow evening has been postponed until later. The card party itself, however, will be conducted according to schedule.

A. Ross Dole, 35, foreman at the Chas. G. Spaulding Box factory, died at his home, 337 S. 15th street at noon today, a victim of pneumonia. Mr. Dole has been sick only since Sunday. The body is in charge of Rigdon's undertaking company. Mr. Dole is survived by his mother and a sister, Mrs. Fred McIntire. He was a member of the Elks. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The collision of a streetcar with an auto stopped running as it was on Liberty at 3 p. m. was reported; but no one is said to have been hurt. According to witnesses the engine in the auto-stopped running as it was on the track, and the car did not stop in time to avert the compact. Neither the railway company or police received a report of the collision, they said.

The efforts of the committee in charge of the Guild dance at the armory tomorrow night, are about to be realized if present indications may be taken as omens. All promises for a gay time will be amply fulfilled. The decorations, while not elaborate, will be in accordance with the occasion and will lead a note of warmth and cheer to the atmosphere. The orchestra, in which the committee is placing a great amount of confidence, is composed of the following leading musicians: Lillian McElroy Hunt at the piano; Rhoten and Mills, violins; Pabst, cornet; Steelhammer, trombone; Claret, banjo; Riley, cello; Poppe, clarinet; Talmadge, drums.

"If you knew that you would be one of the 15 men in Salem whose life would end before another year passes, you would take more life insurance. Are YOU sure that you will not be one of the 15? J. F. Hutchason, district manager for the Mutual Life of N. Y. with offices at 371 State St., phone 99, is in a contest that requires him to write TEN $10,000 policies before the first of the year, in order to qualify. "If you are thinking of considering taking more life insurance won't you consult a man whose only business for over 8 years has been life insurance, and one who lives in Salem and one who is interested in seeing Salem become the largest and best city in the state outside of Portland? "If you are looking for information or know of anyone who is considering insurance, I will be pleased to know about them. I can write you a policy that will give you the maximum protection for the minimum cost and in the oldest company in America. I believe it to be the best — may I prove it to you? (Adv)

Read page 151 last week's Saturday Evening Post.

L. P. Campbell of Newberg is a guest at the Argo hotel.

Forming a party that is domiciled at the Bligh hotel are Fred Woodhouse, Matt Young and Ed Holman of Vancouver, Wash.

Among the Portlanders who are visiting in Salem today are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mentor. They are stopping at the Bligh.

From Corvallis come Mr. and Mrs. Batty Cooper who are staying at the Bligh.

Guy Porter spent Wednesday in Portland, attending to business and visiting with friends.

Joe Richardson, assistant state treasurer, went to Portland this morning on official business.

Mrs. Heskiah Brusk of Independence, visited with friends in Salem yesterday.

J. L. Bunn holds from Albany, and is in town on a brief business visit. While here he is at the Bligh.

E. Wilkenson of Tacoma is among the out of town visitors who are staying at the Bligh hotel.

Twin Falls, Idaho, is the home of Eugene Huddleson, one of the guests at the Bligh.

Wanted, John of $7000 on A No. 1 city property, on 1066 1/2 Ave. See Fleming Realty Co., 341 State St.

Registering from Alaska, but giving no definite address, George Alis and F. J. Peatlovich are stopping at the Bligh.

J. B. Coleman of Jacksonville, county assessor of Jackson county, and a former Salemite, spent Thursday visiting friends in the city.

J. C. Aitken of Medford, state superintendent of screens for the fish and game commission, spent Thursday in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hood are Portlanders who are spending the day in Salem. They are guests at the Bligh.

Public Service Commissioner H. H. Corey is back from eastern Oregon where he spent the first of the week conducting hearings at Condon, The Dalles and Dufur.

W. McLaren has opened offices in the Breyman block on Commercial street, where he will handle real estate, loans and investments. Mr. McLaren is formerly of Ontario, Canada, but has resided in the states for a number of years.

Reverend J. E. Buck, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church, was involved in a slight auto accident yesterday afternoon, when to avoid running into a woman who unexpectedly crossed the street in front of him he was forced to make a sharp turn. The slippery pavement caused the car to swerve and the rear wheel was smashed on the curbing.

Under the auspices of the Marion County Holiness association, Reverend Joseph Smith, well known evangelist, will conduct a series of services at the South Salem Friends church, from October 26 to November 14.

The loss of a city warrant, made out June 16, 1919, to Oliver Matthews was reported Thursday morning by City Recorder Race. The warrant was for $13.96, and was No. 26959. Payment on the check has been cancelled, and it is pointed out by Recorder Race that any attempt to cash the warrant will be useless.

A building permit was issued Thursday, for the alteration and repair of a one story brick building, to Joseph Baumgartner, 147 N. Commercial street. The cost of this work will be approximately $5000. Mr. Baumgartner told the city recorder.

A bulletin, setting forth interesting facts and figures of the growth of the Capital Post, American Legion, and announcing coming meetings of the organization, was being prepared Thursday, and will probably be mailed out to members tomorrow. Leaders report an increase of membership received during the past week.

A Bible conference is scheduled to take place at the First Baptist church October 29 to October 31, inclusive. It will be conducted by Dr. James M. Gray, dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, and by Dr. W. P. White, for eighteen years pastor of the Baptist church in Albany. Both men are said to be able lecturers and well acquainted with the subjects they will discuss.

In order to attend the fire prevention pictures being shown at the First Congregational church last evening, the Business Men's league adjourned shortly after convening, without transacting any of its scheduled business. The meeting will be held Wednesday, October 28, in order to make definite plans for the observance of Armistice day, and to arrange for the decoration of the streets and the closing of the business houses on that day.

L. F. Meeske, 320 South Commercial street, was fined $10 Thursday by Police Judge Race for being intoxicated. Meeske was arrested at the S. P. depot late last night by Officer Victor, who found him asleep at a corner of the building. Meeske told Judge Race that he drank a potion, consisting of beef, iron wine and cider, to "drown his troubles" caused when he was discharged from the Chas. K. Spaulding company's mill yesterday morning for "joining the union." Meeske paid the $10 and was released.

Mr. and Mrs. Marrell of Portland are visiting with friends in Salem today.

Seattle is represented on the register of a local hotelery today by Edward H. Eckenche.

Accompanied by his wife, W. D. Gustison of Spokane is a guest at the Bligh hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dunsford have returned from Newport where they have been for the past two weeks on their annual vacation. Mr. Dunsford is superintendent of buildings and grounds at the state capitol.

The supreme court will be in Pendleton next week and most of the members plan to leave Salem Saturday to be in readiness for the opening of the court Monday.

Funeral services for the late Comrade Meeker M. Culver, who died yesterday, will be held from the Terwilliger home, Friday at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the G. A. R. circle in the City View cemetery. Mr. Culver was a member of the 6th Michigan heavy artillery during the War of the Rebellion.

Owing to the fact that Friday evening is the date of the Junior Guild dance at the armory, the dance which was to follow the card party at the Knights of Columbus hall tomorrow evening has been postponed until later. The card party itself, however, will be conducted according to schedule.

A. Ross Dole, 35, foreman at the Chas. G. Spaulding Box factory, died at his home, 337 S. 15th street at noon today, a victim of pneumonia. Mr. Dole has been sick only since Sunday. The body is in charge of Rigdon's undertaking company. Mr. Dole is survived by his mother and a sister, Mrs. Fred McIntire. He was a member of the Elks. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

The collision of a streetcar with an auto stopped running as it was on Liberty at 3 p. m. was reported; but no one is said to have been hurt. According to witnesses the engine in the auto-stopped running as it was on the track, and the car did not stop in time to avert the compact. Neither the railway company or police received a report of the collision, they said.

The efforts of the committee in charge of the Guild dance at the armory tomorrow night, are about to be realized if present indications may be taken as omens. All promises for a gay time will be amply fulfilled. The decorations, while not elaborate, will be in accordance with the occasion and will lead a note of warmth and cheer to the atmosphere. The orchestra, in which the committee is placing a great amount of confidence, is composed of the following leading musicians: Lillian McElroy Hunt at the piano; Rhoten and Mills, violins; Pabst, cornet; Steelhammer, trombone; Claret, banjo; Riley, cello; Poppe, clarinet; Talmadge, drums.

"If you knew that you would be one of the 15 men in Salem whose life would end before another year passes, you would take more life insurance. Are YOU sure that you will not be one of the 15? J. F. Hutchason, district manager for the Mutual Life of N. Y. with offices at 371 State St., phone 99, is in a contest that requires him to write TEN $10,000 policies before the first of the